

Every Child Protected
Against Trafficking

ECPAT UK Online Training

Course Information

- The cost of all modules is £60 (£120 for full two-module courses).
 - o Prices include a digital training pack, any ongoing case consultation on request for attendees and a certificate on completion of each course.
 - o Discounts are available for organisations booking multiple attendees.
- All courses are delivered live online via Zoom with integrated software to enable interactive sessions.
- You can book onto any through our website's training page, or alternatively your organisation can be invoiced on request.

Want us to train your whole organisation?

ECPAT UK can deliver private, live online training for your organisation. This is not only more cost effective for large groups of staff, but it also allows us to tailor the training to your organisation's specific context and needs.

For any inquiries please contact Phil by emailing training@ecpat.org.uk

1. An overview of child trafficking, modern slavery and exploitation

This course gives attendees an overview of the situation in the UK in relation to child trafficking, its different forms and their dynamics. The second session outlines best practice in safeguarding and disruption responses to child trafficking and exploitation.

This course is ideal for a broad range of professionals working in any services working with children vulnerable to trafficking and exploitation.

Module 1: Overview of the UK situation its forms and dynamics

- Monday 7th September 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Monday 5th October 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Wednesday 2nd December 2020 9.30am-1pm

Module 2: Safeguarding and disruption responses

- Tuesday 8th September 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Tuesday 6th October 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Thursday 3rd December 2020 9.30am-1pm

Every Child Protected
Against Trafficking

2. Child criminal exploitation and trafficking

This course focuses on the specific issue of child criminal exploitation (CCE) in the UK. Module 1 reviews the different forms of CCE, their dynamics and methods of control. In Part 2 we consider best practice in safeguarding children and disrupting trafficking, with a particular focus on non-prosecution for child victims of trafficking and working with those already in the Youth Justice System.

This course is ideal for safeguarding, youth justice and legal practitioners who encounter children vulnerable to CCE in their work.

Module 1: An Overview of Child Criminal Exploitation in the UK, its forms and dynamics.

- Monday 29th September 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Tuesday 17th November 2020 9.30am-1pm

Module 2: Responding to CCE: Safeguarding, disruption and non-prosecution.

- Tuesday 30th September 2020 9.30am-1pm
- Wednesday 18th November 2020 9.30-1pm

3. Safe accommodation and missing child victims of trafficking

This course is based on our influential research with Missing People UK into child victims of trafficking going missing from care. It outlines best practice when caring for and accommodating child victims of trafficking, as well as explaining why trafficked children go missing and best practice in responding to and preventing children from going missing.

This course is ideal for those involved in the care of children at risk of trafficking, such as Looked After Child and fostering social workers, foster carers, care home staff and missing persons practitioners.

Module 1: Providing safe accommodation and care for child victims of trafficking

- Monday 2nd November 2020 9.30am-1pm.

Module 2: Preventing and responding child victims of trafficking going missing

- Tuesday 3rd November 2020 9.30am-1pm.

Every Child Protected
Against Trafficking

4. Spiritual abuse and child trafficking (Single module)

Based on our experience of working with victims of child trafficking, this half-day course looks at the particular relationship between spiritual abuse and child trafficking. It aims to provide an understanding of the interlinkages between the two, their dynamics and effective responses to this particular issue.

This course is ideal for those working with child victims of trafficking and exploitation where spiritual abuse is a particular concern. It is recommended that you have a solid understanding of child trafficking, modern slavery and exploitation prior to attending this course (for example, by attending Module 1 of our 'Overview' course as a minimum).

Half day course: Tuesday 8th December 2020 9.30-1pm.